THERE would have been a second General Meeting of the Inhabitants, on Tuesday last; but that the Notice given was thought insufficient, and therefore it was adjourned to Friday Morning 10 o'Clock.

The same Day Hugh Finlay, Esq; Surveyor-General of his Majesty's Post Roads on this Continent, arrived here from Philadelphia, in the Brigt. Prince of Wales, Capt. Mason.——By this Vessel, we have the following Accounts of the Progress of the Opposition, to the Reception of the East-India Company's Tea (while it is subject to the Payment of a Duty upon being landed in America) at Philadelphia, New-York, and Boston, at each of which Places there is a Regiment of the King's Troops, and at the last a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships.

The PENNSYLVANIANS were the first that moved.—Their Merchants had not imported Teas subject to the said Duty—the Masters of Ships in that Trade had refused to bring it out on Freight—they were therefore unanimous.—They had early and very respectable public Meetings—they enjoined their Pilots not to bring any Tea Ship in—printed Menaces were thrown out, wherein Tar, Feathers, and Halters, were mentioned—and they entered into the spirited Resolutions which were inserted in this Gazette of the 2nd ult. the 7th of which we will repeat, viz. "That whoever shall directly or indirectly, countenance this "Attempt, or in any wise aid or abet in unloading, receiving, "or vending the Tea sent, or to be sent out, by the East-India "Company, while it remains subject to a Duty to be paid here, "IS AN ENEMY TO HIS COUNTRY."——In Consequence of the 8th, the Commissioners, Messrs. James & Drinker, Messrs. Thomas & Isaac Wharton, and Mr. Jonathan Brown, had resigned; as it was expected Mr. Gilbert Barclay would do, when he arrived at Philadelphia;—and a sharp Look-out was kept, for the Ship Polly, Capt. Ayres, with the Tea on board, not yet arrived on the 9th Instant.

The NEW-YORKERS followed.——On the 5th of November, they drew through the Streets, and at last burnt before the Door of the Coffee-House, an Effigy of William Kelly, with his Name in luminous Characters, suspended on a Gallows fixed in a Cart, with a Canister before him inscribed, Tea Three Pence Sterling Duty—being charged with having animated the East-India Company to send their Tea to America, by saying, "There was no Danger from the Resentment of the People in "New-York, if it should be even as high as in the Time of the "Stamp-Act; for that now they had a different Person to deal "with, and the Tea would be crammed down their Throats."—They then likewise had several public Meetings--resolved to abide by their Non-Importation Agreement, regarding dutiable Teas—enjoined their Pilots not to bring any Tea-Ships farther than Sandy-Hook—desired, and obtained, the Resignation of the Commissioners, viz. the Hon. Henry White, Abraham Lot, Esq; and Mr. Benjamin Booth—and seemed determined to oppose its being landed at all Events.——Their Correspondents in London, and the Masters of Ships in that Trade, instead of soliciting for the Freight, refused to bring it out, and received the most cordial Thanks.——The Tea for that Port, was not arrived the 3d Instant, but it was then said, that if it should be possible to get any ashore, it would be taken under the Protection of the Government, and deposited in the lower Barracks.

The BOSTONIANS were the last, but not the least spirited, in their Motions—They had many public Meetings at Liberty-Tree, &c. at the first of which the Pennsylvania Resolves were adopted, and an additional one passed, "That as some Mer- "chants amongst them had imported Tea subject to the Duty; "and as it was probable the British Administration had taken "Encouragement from thence, to grant Licences to the East- "India Company; so it was the DETERMINATION of the "Town, to prevent the Sale of the said Company's Tea; and "THEIR EXPECTATION, that none, liable to pay the said Duty, "should, on any pretence whatever, be thereafter imported, by "any Person, until the Act imposing the said Duty should be re- "pealed."—The Commissioners there, viz. Messrs. Thomas & Elisha Hutchinson, (Sons of the Governor) Messrs. Richard Clarke & Sons, and Messrs. Benjamin Faneuil & Joshua Winslow, who had been the chief Importers all along, next engaged the Attention of the People, and gave them much Trouble: Message after Message was sent to them to resign, but they constantly endeavoured to retain their Commission, so that at Length they might carry their Point—their Answers were always unsatisfactory—and their Behaviour such, that they at last began to entertain some Apprehensions for the Safety of their Persons, and withdrew themselves to the Castle.—Nov. 28th, the Ship Dartmouth, commanded by Capt. Hall, with 114 Chests of the offensive Tea, arrived at the said Castle—and the next Day went up to Town, and anchored at the Long-Wharf.—At 9 o'Clock in the Morning of the 29th, upon a Signal given, there was so numerous a Meeting of the Inhabitants of Boston, and of the neighbouring Towns, in Faneuil-Hall, that, after choosing JONATHAN WILLIAMS, Esq; Moderator, and absolutely determining, nem. con. "That the Tea then arrived should be re-"turned to the Place from whence it came, at all events," they were obliged to adjourn to the Old South Meeting-house; where they farther resolved, "That no Duty should be paid "thereon; and that the Consignees should have Time till "3 o'Clock, in the Afternoon to give in their Proposals."—At 3 o'Clock, it was resolved, that "the Tea should be sent back "in the same Bottom;"—Mr. Rotch, the Owner of the Ship, was directed, at his Peril, "not to enter the Tea;" and Capt. Hall, in like Manner, "not to suffer any Part thereof to be "landed—a Watch was appointed to guard the Ship and the Tea; and a further Time allowed the Consignees, till 9 o'Clock the next Morning.——Nov 30th, The long expected Proposals from the Consignees, were delivered in,—They declined to send back the Teas; but offered to store them till they should receive farther Orders from their Constituents.—Just at this Instant, the Sheriff came into the Meeting, and desired Leave to read a Proclamation, "charging the People with having assembled for un-"lawful Purposes, and requiring them forthwith to disperse"—it was agreed, nem. con. that the Proclamation should be read—the Reading was followed by a general Hiss—and it was resolved, nem. con. "That the Assembly should not disperse, or sur-"cease further Proceedings."—Mr. Rotch and Capt. Hall then attended, and were required to return the Tea in the Bottom in which it came. Mr. Rotch answered, that "he should protest "against their Proceedings, and that tho' returning the Tea "would be an involuntary Act in him, yet he considered him-"self as under a Necessity of doing it, and therefore should "comply with the Requisition." Capt. Hall answered, that "if he continued Master of the Vessel, he would carry the Tea "back to London."—Mr. Rowe, Owner of another Ship expected with Teas, had the same Requisition made to him as had been to Mr. Rotch; his Answer was, that "he would "his utmost Endeavours that the Tea should go back as "quired, and that he would give immediate Advice of the "rival of said Ship."—Mr. Timmons, Factor for a Brigt. with another Cargo, also attended, and engaged his Word of Honour, "that the Tea should not be landed while the Vessel was under "his Care, nor touched by any one until the Owner's Arri-"val."—Their Answers were voted satisfactory.—Relief Guards were appointed.—And a final Answer was received from the Tea Factors, "That they could do no more than renew the "Proposal to store the Tea, and submit it to the Inspection of "a Committee; that they could go no further without incur-"ring their own Ruin; but as they had not been active in in-"troducing the Tea, so they should do nothing to obstruct the "People in their Procedure with the same." This, upon a Question, was, nem. con. voted unsatisfactory—and the following Resolve concluded the Business of that Day—since which we have had no further Advices.

RESOLVE of the Meeting at Boston on the 30th of November, 1773.

"WHEREAS a Number of Merchants in this Province have inadvertently imported Tea from Great-Britain, while it is subject to the Payment of a Duty imposed upon it by an Act of the British Parliament, for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, and appropriating the same without the Consent of those who are required to pay it: RESOLVED, That in thus importing said Tea, they have justly incurred the Displeasure of our Brethren in the other Colonies. And RESOLVED further, That if any Person or Persons shall hereafter import Tea from Great-Britain, or if any Master or Masters of any Vessel or Vessels in Great-Britain shall take the same on board to be imported to this Place, until the said unrighteous Act shall be repealed, he or they shall be deemed by this Body an Enemy to his Country; and we will prevent the Landing and Sale of the same, and the Payment of any Duty thereon. And we will effect the Return thereof to the Place from whence it came. RESOLVED, That the foregoing Vote be printed and sent to England, and all the Sea-ports in this Province. Upon a Motion made, voted, that fair Copies be taken of the whole Proceedings of this Meeting, and transmitted to New-York and Philadelphia, and that Mr. Samuel Adams, Hon. John Hancock, Esq; William Phillips, Esq; John Rowe, Esq; Jonathan Williams, Esq; be a Committee to transmit the same.——VOTED, That it is the Determination of this Body to carry their Votes and Resolutions into Execution, at the Risk of their Lives and Property. VOTED, that the Committee of Correspondence for this Town, be desired to take Care that every other Vessel with Tea that arrives in this Harbour, have a proper Watch appointed for her. Also VOTED, That those Persons who are desirous to make a Part of those nightly Watches, be desired to give in their Names at Messrs. Edes and Gill's Printing-Office. VOTED, That our Brethren in the Country be desired to afford their Assistance upon the first Notice given; especially if such Notice be given upon the Arrival of Capt. Loring, in Messrs. Clarke's Brigt. VOTED, That those of this Body who belong to the Town of Boston, do return their Thanks to their Brethren who have come from the neighbouring Towns, for their Countenance and Union with this Body in this Exigence of our Affairs. VOTED, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Jonathan Williams, Esq; for his good Services as Moderator. VOTED, That this Meeting be dissolved, and it was accordingly dissolved."

On Wednesday Evening there was a very numerous Meeting of the most respectable Planters and Landholders in this Province, at Mrs. Swallow's Tavern: And another of Mechanick. 15th

And on Thursday, there was also a Meeting of the Merchants Committee, at the same House. 16th

Friday Morning the General Meeting of the Inhabitants, in Consequence of Tuesday's Adjournment, was opened at 10 o'Clock, under the Exchange, and continued till 3 in the Afternoon; when another was agreed to be held, at the same Place, on Friday the 7th Day of January next, at 10 o'Clock in the Forenoon; and it was requested, that every Man of Property in the Province that could attend, would be present. 17th

The Hon. GEORGE-GABRIEL POWELL, who was placed in the Chair on the 3d, was again placed therein on this Day. He opened the Meeting, by strongly recommending Temper and Moderation throughout their Proceedings. The greatest Order and Regularity was accordingly observed; and no Gentleman, that had an Inclination to speak, suffered the least Interruption, but was heard with the greatest Attention.—Each Side of the Question had its Advocates; the unpopular one very few.—But the great Stumbling-Block, to proceeding in a Way somehow different from the general Sense of the present very numerous and respectable Assembly, was, that many Gentlemen in Trade had not desisted from importing Teas subject to the odious Duty, from the Time it had been imposed, to the very Day of the Importation by the East India Company. All therefore that could be done, was, to shew the most public Disapprobation to the Reception of such Teas, either from the said Company, or our own Merchants. And accordingly it was

RESOLVED (Nem. Con.) That the East-India Company's Tea, imported in Captain Curling's Ship, ought not to be landed, received, or vended in this Province, by any Person or Persons whosoever, while subject to a Duty to be paid in America; as nothing could be more disagreeable to the whole Body of the People now assembled. And that JOHN RUTLEDGE, Esq; together with the Committee which had been before appointed, do immediately communicate this Resolution to Captain Curling, and the Consignees; and also acquaint the Consignees, that it is the People's Expectation, and they put the most firm Reliance, on their strict Adherance to the Promises and Engagements they had entered into on the 3d, "NOT TO RECEIVE OR HAVE ANY THING TO DO WITH THE SAID TEA."

RESOLVED, further (Nem. Con.) That no Teas that will pay the Duty, that now is or hereafter may be imposed, by any Act of the Parliament of Great-Britain, for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, ought to be imported or purchased, by any Person or Persons whosoever, while such Duties continue.

Upon a Motion for an Amendment of the last Resolution.

RESOLVED, That it is the Sense of this Body, that no Teas ought to be imported from any Place whatsoever, while the offensive Act remains unrepealed.

The following Form of a GENERAL AGREEMENT was then proposed, to be maturely considered, previous to and at the next GENERAL MEETING, to be entered into by every Inhabitant of this Province, who has a due Regard to the Welfare of his Country, himself, and his Posterity, as the only effectual Mens to procure a Redress of our Grievances.

SOUTH-CAROLINA,

"We the undersigned, inhabitants of this province, now despairing to obtain, upon the principles of constitutional right and justice, the repeal of an act of the parliament of Great-Britain (wherein we are not represented) passed in 1767, imposing a duty on Teas imported from thence, for the express purpose of raising a revenue in America: do hereby solemnly promise and agree, each for him or herself, that we will not import, buy, sell, or use, but every way discountenance the importing, buying, selling, and using any teas, from the day of the date hereof, and during the continuance of the said act; that we will, every way in our power discountenance the importing, buying, selling or using, of every other article whatsoever, that now is or hereafter may be, charged with like duties, until every such duty be repealed: and that we will not purchase any goods whatever, of any person or persons whosoever, that shall hereafter import, buy, sell, or use, any teas or other dutiable articles as aforesaid. And this we do, of mere necessity, and from a conviction, that the submitting to the payment of such duties, will be a tacit acknowledgment of a power which the parliament have assumed and exercised, to tax us against our consent; and which we deny them to have under our excellent constitution."

The Honourable Chairman (Col. POWELL) was then heartily thanked for his Services; and the Printer of this Gazette directed to give notice that THE NEXT GENERAL MEETING IS APPOINTED TO BE HELD, AT THE SAME PLACE, ON FRIDAY THE 7th OF JANUARY NEXT, AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING.—which is accordingly hereby done.

Yesterday Thomas Lynch, Esq; and Mrs. Lynch, returned from the Northern Colonies, by Land.
